

2025 Fall International College Students' Blending Conference

The gospel is a great feast. To be invited to a feast is to be asked to come and enjoy. It is mentioned in Matthew, then in 1 Corinthians, and finally in Revelation. In God's view, His gospel is not focused on asking people to repent or to believe; even more it is not focused on asking them to join a religion. Rather, it is focused on inviting people to the feast. To come to the feast means to come and enjoy the Lord Jesus. To receive the gospel is to receive the Lord into us so that we may eat, drink, and enjoy Him.

Our whole Christian life is a life of keeping the feast. Every day we are keeping the feast. Whenever we come to meet, we are keeping the feast. Every time we come together, whether we sing, pray-read, fellowship, exhort one another, supply one another, speak to one another, or listen to one another, the basic principle is that we are keeping the feast.
